

Online Giving

To access your church's Online Giving, go to the church website and click on the on Online Giving button.

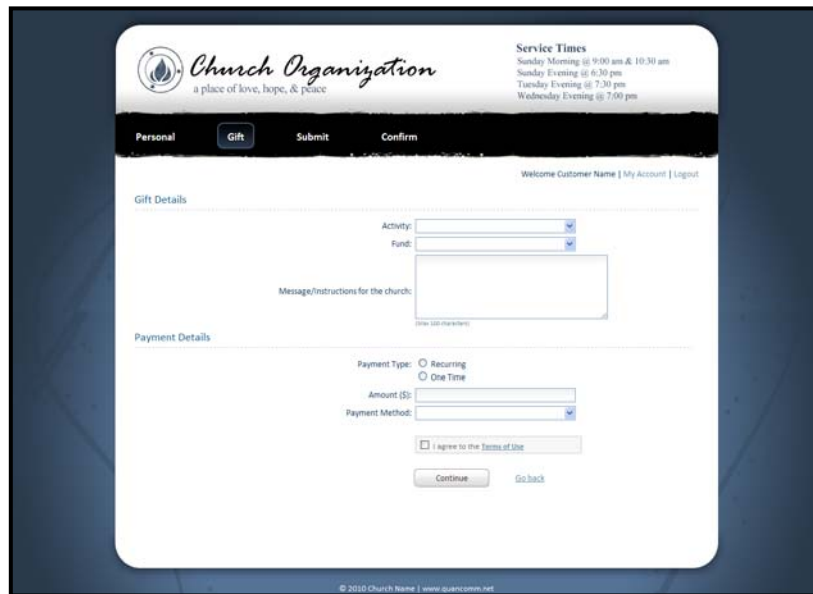

You have the option to create an account or to make a donation without registering. Once you have created an account, you can log in to manage your online donations and payments or change billing accounts.

An email address is required for all online donations. If you choose to create an account, your email address becomes your User Name. Emails are used only for transaction confirmations and password recovery and are never sold or shared.

Online Giving

The Confirmation page includes the gift amount. This page will also include your parish phone number and email address information. From here you can either log out or go to your account information page by selecting the links next to the Welcome message at the top of the page. If you would like to give to more than one church activity, you will need to set up a separate payment. To do this, select the My Account option at the top of the page.
